Letter from the President

Wow! What a good year we have had with wonderful demos covering various mediums such as glass, pastel, oil, colored markers and black pen, and acrylics. This month, Dennis at DK's in Tavares, will demo some of his work and how he uses various mediums and introduce to us some new, available products we might like to try. He will offer us good discounts on these that day so we hope that you will come.

Please use your summer away from us for inspiration and come back ready to share experiences and new work. As Georgia O'Keefe said, "To create one's world in any of the arts takes courage." Wherever you go, whatever you see, take time to incorporate these views in your art. In our December Show, our theme will be : People and Paragraphs, with an emphasis on people in any shape, form, or medium. We will explain this and our creative challenges in our June, Summer Edition, MDAL Newsletter. Be on the look-out! Thank you for choosing our art league, for accepting our challenges, for working to give monetary support to Mount Dora art teachers, and for entering shows, sharing your talents, and in taking the time to express your insight on the world you inhabit!

Quote of the Month

President John F. Kennedy-
Inscription on his Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C.

To further the appreciation of culture among all the people, to increase respect for the creative individual, to widen participation by all the processes and fulfillments of art-
This is one of the fascinating challenges of these days.
