December 2015

Message from the President

Happy Holidays to all and thank you for your support of our Winter Show! We received many positive comments from the steady stream of visitors and we sold nine chairs. We earned $615.00. We will offer the ten left for sale at the Mount Dora Art Festival during the first weekend in February. We would also like to raffle off three works of donated art for our school mission.

As your President, I am always amazed at the willing volunteers so that we can do all it takes to have a show. Of course, we are lead by Esther Dirlam whose attention to detail and commitment can not be questioned...thank you, Esther.

I hope to see you all at our Holiday Brunch on December 19 at ten .

Holiday Brunch

The party begins at 10:00AM, Sat. Dec.19th. Please, bring $10.00 for the schools in lieu of a gift for ourselves

(those who gave a chair are excluded)

The judge left comments for each of you, so ask to see them at the December meeting

Upcoming Fun

Nike Bolte will purchase tickets for fifteen + MDAL members to go to see Calendar Girls at Bay Street on January 31, at two for the matinee. It is selling quickly so call her now . She must pay for the block to reserve them. Call Nike : 383-1419

Merry Christmas

From Esther

Beaucoup thanks to those of you who faithfully worked long and hard to bring our art show to a resounding success. The teamwork was fantastic. You are truly appreciated.

Nineteen original hand-painted chairs were impressive, and we sold half of them.

Contact Esther if you want a signed tax deductible form for your donated chairs.

Art Quotes from Susan

From the book, Art & Fear by David Bayles and Ted Orland

Art that deals with ideas is more interesting than art that deals with technique.

Artists get better by sharpening their skills or by acquiring new ones. They get better by learning to work, and by learning from their work... making art is
