

MOUNT DORA ART LEAGUE NEWS

NOVEMBER 2018

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S PEN

Our December Show and Sale will be at the Congregational Church on the 14th, 15th, 16th, and rules & schedule will be emailed shortly. Keep painting, photographing, and creating! Deadline for entries is December 10 WITH NO EXTENSION POSSIBLE. Let's get at least one work of art from each member to have a great showing (of course we really want three from each of you!)

Everyone's help is necessary in order to have a successful show and sale. Sign-up forms will be available at the November meeting for set-up and take-down; sitting the show and sales table in two-hour time slots; and bringing food donations for Saturday reception from 4 to 6 p.m.

The reception will be our Gala Christmas Party for members AND visitors to the show. Bring your Christmas cheer, delicious Christmas finger food, and wear your Christmas finery. We will have Christmas music as well throughout the weekend. Bring your art supplies to donate to the Mount Dora High School, Middle School, and Triangle Elementary School and/or a monetary donation to go toward art supplies. THANK YOU!

SEE YOU AT OUR NEXT MEETING – 17 NOVEMBER – 10 a.m.

Trudy Quick will take us into her world through the eyes of photography.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING EVERYONE!

ESTHER'S BOOKSHELF

ANNE PERRY (2018) TWENTY-ONE DAYS: Author enters the Edwardian period (1910) as Thomas & Charlotte's son Daniel carries on the family's distinguished mystery-solving tradition. He has to find the truth in a tangle of dark deception lest an innocent man hang for another's heinous crime. Courtroom drama. Suspenseful.

NF – MARTIE HASSELTON, PhD (2018) HORMONAL: Brilliant. Anchored in deep science yet mesmerizing reading. An examination of how hormones influence how we feel, behave, love, and make mistakes. Written with passion and intelligence. Provides important insight about the female experience and how the hidden intelligence of hormones drives desire, shapes relationships, influences our choices and makes us wiser.
